

ISSUES IN GERMAN POLITICS

Edited by

Professor Charlie Jeffery, Institute for German Studies
Dr Charles Lees, University of Sussex

Issues in German Politics is a major new series on contemporary Germany. Focusing on the post-unity era, it presents concise, scholarly analyses of the forces driving change in domestic politics and foreign policy. Key themes will be the continuing legacies of German unification and controversies surrounding Germany's role and power in Europe. The series includes contributions from political science, international relations and political economy.

Already published:

Bulmer, Jeffery and Paterson: *Germany's European diplomacy:
Shaping the regional milieu*

Harding and Paterson (eds): *The future of the German economy:
An end to the miracle?*

Hyde-Price: *Germany and European order:
Enlarging NATO and the EU*

Lees: *The Red-Green coalition in Germany:
Politics, personalities and power*

Rittberger: *German foreign policy since unification:
