

Curriculum Vitae

Marius Melzer, M. A.

Research Training Group
Policy Performance of Autocratic and Democratic Regimes

Institute for Political Science
Bergheimer Str. 20
69115 Heidelberg
Phone: + 496221 543727
E-Mail: marius.melzer@ipw.uni-heidelberg.de

Personal details

Name: Marius Melzer
Date of Birth: November 18th, 1985
Nationality: German
Marital Status: Single

Education:

12/2012 to Present: Member of the Research Training Group Policy Performance of Autocratic and Democratic Regimes

9/2010 to 10/2012: Master of Arts in Political Science, Ruprecht-Karls-University Heidelberg

10/2006 to 2/2010: Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, Bielefeld University

8/1996 to 6/2005: Abitur at Goerdeler Gymnasium Paderborn

Professional Experience:

4/2011 to 8/2011: Research internship at the chair for Political Economics at the Institute for Political Science of Ruprecht-Karls-University Heidelberg

2/2009 to 3/2009: Internship at CDU local-office in Paderborn

2/2008 to 3/2008: Internship at the Secretary of the Committee of European Affairs of the German Bundestag

Research Visits:

9/2008 to 2/2009: Exchange semester at Zurich University (Switzerland)

Research Interests:

Comparative Politics, Environmental Politics, Analysis of differences in political processes in democracies and autocracies, sociological systems theory and sports politics

Awards and Fundings:

1/2013: Scholarship for the membership in the Research Training Group Policy Performance of Autocratic and Democratic Regimes

6/2010: Award for the best degree in the Bachelor studies of Political Science at Bielefeld University

Publications:

2012: Parliamentary Scrutiny of EU Law Proposals in Denmark – Why do Governments request a Negotiation Mandate? (together with Daniel Finke)

2010: Sportpolitik und die Liberalisierung der Ausländerklauseln – Hat sich die Nachwuchsförderung im Fußball und Basketball in Deutschland verändert? (Sport politics and the liberalization of the player market – Has the promotion of young players in German football and basketball changed?)