

Prof. Dr. Katja Patzel-Mattern (30.03.1970)

Heidelberg University, year of appointment: 2007

CURRICULUM VITAE

since 2016	dean of students, faculty of philosophy, Heidelberg University, Germany
since 2015	professor of economic- and social history at the department of history, Heidelberg University, Germany
2012 - 2014	co-director of the Center for European History and Cultural Sciences (ZEGK), Heidelberg University, Germany
2011 - 2017	equal opportunities commissioner, faculty of philosophy, Heidelberg University, Germany
2009	professor of economic- and social history (transcultural studies) at the department of history, Heidelberg University, Germany
2009	acting professor of economic- and social history at the department of history, Heidelberg University, Germany
2008	offer of a professorship, Heidelberg University, Germany
2008	habilitation, Konstanz University, Germany; venia legendi: History of modern times and contemporary history
2007 - 2009	professorial lecturer at the department of history, Heidelberg University, Germany
2001 – 2007	habilitation, Konstanz University, Germany
1998	PhD in history, Münster University, Germany
since 1994	teaching experiences at different universities, university extension, academies, adult education centres
1994	master, Münster University, Germany
1989 – 1994	academic studies in history, journalism and political sciences, Münster and Barcelona University, Germany and Spain

SCOLAR- AND FELLOWSHIPS

2016 – 2017	Marsilius-Kolleg (research / advanced studies)
2005 – 2006	Gerda Henkel-Stiftung (research)
2001 – 2005	Dr. Meyer-Struckmann Stiftung (research / habilitation)
1995 – 1998	Studienstiftung des Deutschen Volkes (research / PhD)
1994	Deutsch-Katalanische Gesellschaft (culture and language)

PROJECTS

Art, Culture and Markets. The History of the European Cultural Industries from the 18th century to the present,

Promotionskolleg Landesgraduiertenförderung (starting in October 2017)

Negotiating and Participation within the HdG program. Peiner AG 1975-1984

Hans-Böckler-Stiftung (starting in January 2018)

Learning from nature. Archives and the challenge of raising complexity, Frontier (applied)

Industrial crisis communication (finished)

research network, funded by excellence initiative, Konstanz University

Crisis communication in chemical industries (finished)

research project, funded by excellence initiative, Konstanz University

FIELDS OF INTEREST

(cultural) economic and social history, business history, history of science, gender and intersectional studies, history of the body, social and cultural memory