

Dear Friends,

'Tis the Season to be Jolly...

Season's greetings to you all as the time for giving is here again. Special greetings to all our Alumni also from Prof. Hans-Jochen Diesfeld. As we know it has been 2 years since our dear Andreas left this earth, however his spirit continues to live on in our hearts and also continues to make an impact via the Andreas Ruppel Fund.

The fund exists and survives thanks to your generosity and you will be pleased to know that this year the fund will contribute towards a deserving Masters level student being able to attend the Master of Science in International Health course at Heidelberg University. Furthermore, we used the fund to support an online summer school "Health in the Anthropocene: What can I do?" with 17 international participants, as well as a weekend career development workshop in Bammental for our recent Master's in International Health graduates. Last but not least we covered the tuition fees for an orphan nursing student in Malawi and we hope that all of these activities resonate with our donors.

It is on this note that we reach out to you to kindly request for your support once more to replenish the fund and help keep Andreas's name and generous spirit alive. Your support can make the difference for a student to attend the Masters course and other educational activities and help them to realise their future dreams.

By making your donation today – you will indeed be doing something very special. The bank details where you can send your donations are below and please do believe that every little helps. Thank you in advance for your generosity and may peace on earth and goodwill to all mankind extend to us all.

Warm Regards, Theresa, Angela, Vava, Kathia, Andreas and Felipe
