Heidelberg University intermediate examination and degree programme rules and regulations for the teaching degree programme in Protestant Theology - special section -

26 April 2010

Preamble
All titles in this document, be they official, job, status or functions, are used in masculine form, however they refer to men and women equally and may also be used in the corresponding feminine form.

§ 1 Applicability of general section
The Heidelberg University degree programme and examination rules and regulations for the teaching degree programme (secondary schools) - general section - in their respective current version are part of these examination rules and regulations.

§ 2 Examination committee
The examination committee of the faculty is responsible for organising orientation and intermediate examinations for the teaching degree programme in Protestant Theology. The committee is composed of the dean, vice dean, three further professors from the teaching staff, and two research associates, who all have voting rights, as well as a student as an advisory member.

§ 3 Orientation examination
The orientation examination is an integral part of the course and consists of participation in the course "Introduction to Theology / Beginner's Project" and the preparatory module examinations Basic Biblical Studies Certificate OT or Basic Biblical Studies Certificate NT (TD-Prep) (for the teaching degree programme for secondary schools), or the preparatory module examinations Basic Biblical Studies Certificate OT or Basic Biblical Studies Certificate NT (TD-Care-Prep) (for the advanced teaching degree programme for vocational schools). The orientation examination is passed when the examination components mentioned have been graded as "sufficient" (4.0) or higher.
§ 4 Intermediate examination

The intermediate examination is passed when modules from the degree programme in Protestant Theology corresponding to a minimum of 40 CP have been passed, three modules have been completed with a grade of 4.0 or higher, and the required language qualifications have been proven.

§ 5 Academic records

(1) Knowledge of the following languages must be proven in accordance with annex A of GymPO I (for the teaching degree programme for secondary schools) or annex A of WPrOSozPädCare (for the advanced teaching degree programme for vocational schools):
- Latin Certificate (Latinum)
- Ancient Greek Certificate (Graecum)
If knowledge of these languages is not included within the university entrance qualification, it must be proven by the date of the intermediate examination. If the degree programme is taken as a minor subject, knowledge of Latin and Greek must be proven through successful participation in Latin I and Greek I respectively.

(2) Modules to be taken during the course of study are oriented towards GymPO I (for the teaching degree programme for secondary schools) or WPrOSozPädCare (for the advanced teaching degree programme for vocational schools). They are listed in annex 2 and 3 respectively.

§ 6 Retaking examination components

(1) Examination components completed during the course of study may be retaken once. A second retake is only possible in exceptional and justifiable cases. The orientation examination may only be retaken once.

(2) If examination components and prerequisites have been passed, they may not be retaken.

§ 7 Coming into force

(1) These examination rules and regulations come into force on 01 September 2010 and apply to all students who study under the provisions of the Ministry of Education for the first state examination for secondary school teachers (GymPO I - examination rules and regulations for secondary school teachers).

(2) With the coming into force of these examination rules and regulations, the Heidelberg University intermediate examination rules and regulations - Protestant Theology special section - for the teaching degree programme of 16 December 2003 (President and vice-chancellor’s bulletin (Mitteilungsblatt des Rektors) of 30/09/2010, p. 1,415, modified on 20 November 2013 (President and vice-chancellor’s bulletin (Mitteilungsblatt des Rektors) of 30 April 2014, p. 253)) has legal validity.

(3) The examination rules and regulations mentioned in paragraph 2 continue to apply to students who enrolled for the teaching degree programme for secondary schools in Protestant Theology before 1 September 2010 and study under the provisions of the Ministry of Education for academic state examinations for secondary school teachers (academic examination rules and regulations).
