12th Interdisciplinary Symposium on Knowledge and Space
» Geographies of the University «

Agenda

Wednesday, September 03, 2014

8:30  Departure from Hotel Crowne Plaza by taxis
9:00  Registration at Villa Bosch
9:15  Welcome Address
     Klaus Tschira (Klaus Tschira Stiftung gGmbH, Heidelberg, Germany)
9:30  Introduction to the Symposium
     Peter Meusburger (Department of Geography, Heidelberg University, Germany)

10:00 – 12:30 Session 1: Universities and Regional Economies
Chair: John Goddard (Centre for Urban and Regional Development Studies (CURDS), Newcastle University, UK)

10:00  The Entrepreneurial University Wave: Shaping a Triple Helix for Sustainable Innovation
       Henry Etzkowitz (International Triple Helix Institute, Palo Alto, USA and University of London, Birkbeck, UK)
11:00  Coffee Break
11:30  The Impact of Public Universities on the Regional Economy: A Case Study from Baden-Württemberg
       Johannes Glückler (Department of Geography, Heidelberg University, Germany)
12:30  Lunch

13:30 – 16:00 Session 2: Universities in their Local Environments
Chair: Mike Heffernan (School of Geography, University of Nottingham, UK)

13:30  The Campus of the Future is a City - Campus Planning becomes Urban Planning
       Alexandra den Heijer (Faculty of Architecture, Delft University of Technology (TU Delft), The Netherlands)
14:30  Coffee Break
15:00  Studentification and New Town - Gown Relations
       Darren Smith (Department of Geography, Loughborough University, UK)
16:00  General Discussion about Heidelberg’s 10-year Project “Wissen-schafft-Stadt”
       (Knowledge Based Urbanism, see http://iba.heidelberg.de/english/)
       Michael Braum (Director) & Carl Zillich (Curatorial Director, Internationale Bauausstellung Heidelberg GmbH, Heidelberg, Germany)
17:00  Return to the hotel by taxis
19:00  Dinner at the Restaurant “Backmulde” in the historic town of Heidelberg (free of charge for all speakers)
Thursday, September 04, 2014

8:45  Departure from Hotel Crowne Plaza by taxis

9:15 – 12:30 Session 3: Universities in Medieval Times
Chair: Jane Knight (Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto, Canada)

9:15  Space and Civilisation: Challenges of the University in Medieval Europe
Martin Kintzinger (History Department, University of Münster, Germany)

10:15 The Repertorium Academicum Germanicum (RAG) and the Geography of German Universities and Academics (1350-1550)
Rainer C. Schwinges (Department of History and Archaeology, University of Bern, Switzerland)

11:15 Coffee Break

11:45 Age of Iron, Age of Gold: The Thirty Years War, the German Reformed Diaspora, and the Golden Age of the Dutch Universities
Howard Hotson (Faculty of History, University of Oxford, UK)

12:45 Lunch

13:30 – 17:00 Session 4: Universities and their Networks
Chair: Jane Kenway (Faculty of Education, Monash University, Australia)

13:30 Universities and their Spatial Locations
Hanne Kirstine Adriansen (Department of Education (DPU), Aarhus University, Denmark)

14:30 Cambridge Academic Expertise and British Colonial Policy, 1886-1955
Heike Jöns (Department of Geography, Loughborough University, UK)

15:30 Coffee Break

16:00 University-Industry Linkages in the Global South
Daniel Schiller (Lower Saxony Institute for Economic Research (NIW), Germany)

17:15 Return to the hotel by taxis

18:30 Optional Walking Tour from Hotel to Heidelberg’s “Philosophers Walk”
(Topic: Heidelberg as University Town, Peter Meusburger)

20:00 Dinner at the restaurant “Kulturbrauerei” in the historic town of Heidelberg (not free of charge)
Friday, September 05, 2014

08:45  Departure from Hotel Crowne Plaza by taxis

09:15 – 13:00 Session 5: University and the City I
Chair: Darren Smith (Department of Geography, Loughborough University, UK)

9:15  Spatializations of Knowledge and the University: Scale, Materiality and Metaphors
Jennifer L. Croissant (Department of Women’s Studies, University of Arizona, USA)

10:15  Knowledge Environments in University Towns: A Conceptual Framework
Peter Meusburger (Department of Geography, Heidelberg University, Germany)

11:15  Coffee Break

11:45  The Political Geography of British University Expansion in the 1960s
Mike Heffernan (School of Geography, University of Nottingham, UK)

13:00  Lunch

14:00 – 17:30 Session 6: University and the City II
Chair: Johannes Glückler (Department of Geography, Heidelberg University, Germany)

14:00  The Civic University and the City
John Goddard (Centre for Urban and Regional Development Studies (CURDS), Newcastle University, UK)

15:00  Coffee Break

15:30  The University in its Place: Thinking in and beyond Globalisation
Allan Cochrane (Faculty of Social Sciences, The Open University, UK)

16:30  General Discussion in the Garden (if the weather allows)

17:15  Return to hotel by taxis

Free evening
Saturday, September 06, 2014

8:45  Departure from Hotel Crowne Plaza by taxis

9:15 – 13:00 Session 7: Universities and the Future

Chair: Heike Jöns (Department of Geography, Loughborough University, UK)

9:15  Mobile Students from Asia Decolonising Knowledge about Asia: Travels towards a Defiant Research Imagination
Jane Kenway (Faculty of Education, Monash University, Australia)

10:15 Creating a New Knowledge Space? The Diverse Development of China-Asean Knowledge Networks
Anthony R. Welch (Faculty of Education and Social Work, The University of Sydney, Australia)

11:15  Coffee Break

11:45 International Education Hubs
Jane Knight (Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto, Canada)

13:00 Lunch

14:00 – 14:30 Concluding Discussion

Chair: Peter Meusburger (Department of Geography, Heidelberg University, Germany)

Transfer to hotel or airport