

"Verfügungsfonds" - individual funding, according gender action plan of Heidelberg University

I General Informations

1 Verfügungsfonds

Verfügungsfonds (individual funding) is one of the measures of Heidelberg Universities' Gender Action Plan (2013- 2017 , M 11.1).

2 Entitled to apply

Entitled to apply for individual funding (Verfügungsfonds) are female scientists (career stages R1 to R4) as well as female students of Heidelberg University, who fall with a specific situation under the responsibility of equal opportunities and who need short-term and spontaneous financial support. Family-related applications can be submitted by mothers and fathers.

3 Application

Financial aid may be granted upon application. An application can be submitted to UNIFY- Unit for Family, Diversity and Equality (former Equal Opportunity Office) at Heidelberg University at any time. Appropriate documents proofing the situation of need must be attached to the application. Also, a statement of a faculty member on the proposed project. It should also be shown that no other source of money is available to fund it. The maximum funding amount for a single project is 500 €.
