As of September 8, 2025

Hyakumanben Salon with Camerata Carolina
(Heidelberg University Chamber Choir)
Lecture Concert "Musik als Klangsprache"

"Hyakumanben Salon" offers opportunities for researchers at Kyoto University can casually talk to each other across disciplines. The 8th Salon invites Camerata Carolina, the chamber choir of Heidelberg University, and presents a special lecture concert, "Musik als Klangsprache" (music as language of sound) with a lecture by the choir's conductor Prof. Franz Wassermann. The event is co-organized by Heidelberg University Office Kyoto (HUOK) and Kyoto University Office of Research Acceleration.

Date: September 25, 2025
Time: 17:30 – 20:30
Venue: Goethe Institut Villa Kamogawa (Lecture + Concert)
https://maps.app.goo.gl/w6LY8c5SmTCzJAyr8
Research Commons, East Building, Center for Southeast Asian Studies (networking)
https://kyoto.cseas.kyoto-u.ac.jp/researchcommons/
Admission: Free
Registration: https://forms.gle/6gYisGNJp9cLUrU39

Tentative Program:

1) 17:30–18:15 Lecture by Prof. Franz Wassermann
(15min Intro / 20 min lecture / 10min comments & discussion)
Commentators:
Assoc. Prof. Yasushi Ueda (Graduate School of Human and Environmental Science)
Mr. Yudai Okamoto (Ph.D. Student/ Graduate School of Human and Environmental Science)

2) 18:15-19:15 Concert (with a break in the middle)
a) famous pieces by Bach, Brahms, Bruckner, etc.
b) German folk songs
c) Ave Verum Corpus w/ "Heimat" Choir

3) 19:30-20:30 Free networking

As of September 8, 2025

Childcare Service (free)
During the event, children can spend time with sitters in the library of the Goethe-Institut while enjoying German toys and picture books. Please register by September 17.
Childcare time: 17:30 - 19:15
Capacity: 5 children (first come, first served)
Age: 3 yrs to elementary school children (if you wish childcare for children of other age, please contact us)