

Take part in our competition and win a trip to Brussels!

"To have another language is to possess a second soul"

Charlemagne

Do these words resonate with you? If so, our competition is for you!

Using this quote as inspiration, get creative and surprise us with one of the following:

or

or

A short story (max. 500 words)

A video (max. 60 seconds)

A poem (max. 1 page)

on "why multilingualism is important to me".

The most creative submission* will win a weekend trip to Brussels, where the European Parliament will celebrate its Multilingualism Day on 28 September 2019.

Send us your entry in any of the 24 official languages of the European Union via this link by 19 July 2019.

All entries must include a translation of your work into English, French or German!

*Closing date for all entries is 19 July 2019. A maximum of three winning entries will be selected on 24 July 2019. The selection will be based on originality and relevance for promoting multilingualism in the EU. If your entry is selected, you will be informed by email and invited to Brussels. The prize will include accommodation on 28 and 29 September and travel to and from Brussels on 28 and 30 September.

Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data applies to the processing of personal data carried out by the European Parliament.

Any request by data subjects can be addressed to dgtrad.multilingualism@europarl.europa.eu.

European Parliament Directorate-General for TRANSLATION