

Curating Heritage

German-Australian Perspectives

International Symposium with Presentations by:

Corinna Erckenbrecht
(TCS, Heidelberg University):
“Taking care of cultural heritage:
art, culture and religion at Beagle
Bay in historical perspective”

Anna Haebich
(Curtin University, Australia):
“Custodians, country, corroborees and collectors in a settler colony through a decolonising prism”

Birgit Scheps-Bretschneider (Grassi Museum für Völkerkunde, Leipzig):

“Australian Aboriginal collections
in Leipzig: keep, share or restitute them? – Finding common grounds”

Sarah Yu
(Nyamba Buru Yawuru, Australia and TCS, Heidelberg University): “Searching for the in-between:
a holistic approach to heritage,
identification, protection, interpretation and management”

Organiser: Junior Research Group
“The Transcultural Heritage of Northwest Australia”,
(Carsten Wergin, Juliane Breitfeld)
Transcultural Studies (TCS),
Ruprecht-Karls-University
Heidelberg

TRANSCULTURAL STUDIES

11 October 2016 / 2 – 6 pm

Völkerkundemuseum der
J. & E. von Portheim-Stiftung Heidelberg
Hauptstr. 235 (Palais Weimar)
69117 Heidelberg

UNIVERSITÄT
HEIDELBERG
ZUKUNFT
SEIT 1386