

Bernd Schneidmüller – Research Profile

Position: Professor of medieval history
Director of the Marsilius-Kolleg, Institute for Advanced Study, University of Heidelberg (2014-2020)

Date and place of birth: January 22, 1954, Hainchen/Hessen (Germany)

Office Address: Heidelberg University
Zentrum für Europäische Geschichts- und Kulturwissenschaften – Historisches Seminar (Center for European History and Culture – Department of History)
Grabengasse 3-5
D-69117 Heidelberg, Germany

E-mail: bernd.schneidmueller@zegk.uni-heidelberg.de

Education and positions:

1972-1976 Studies in history, literature, theology, law at the Universities of Zurich (Switzerland) and Frankfurt/Main

1976 “Staatsexamen”

1977 PhD in History, University of Frankfurt

1978-1987 Research fellow, Universities of Frankfurt and Braunschweig

1985 Habilitation, University of Braunschweig

1987-1990 Professor of Medieval History, University of Oldenburg

1990-1994 Chair in Medieval History, University of Braunschweig

1994-2003 Chair in Medieval and Regional History, University of Bamberg

1994-1997 Offers for chairs at the Universities of Köln, Oldenburg, Bonn (declined)

2003- Chair in Medieval History, Co-Director of the Department of History, University of Heidelberg

Research:

History of medieval Europe; European nation-building (9th-14th centuries); integration and disintegration in medieval cultures; rituals and symbolic communication; public performance of power and subjection; decision-making in medieval political communities; monasticism in the central middle ages.

Memberships (selected):

Marsilius-Kolleg, Institute for Advanced Study of the Heidelberg University: Fellow (2009-2010), Director (2014-2017)

Heidelberg Academy of Sciences and Humanities: Member (2005), Vice President (2014-2016).

Honors / Invitations (selected):

Eike-von-Repgow-Award Magdeburg (2016); Denomination of an asteroid as (65712) Schneidmüller; Invited Visitor, Institute for Advanced Study Princeton, School of Historical Studies (2014).

Research Projects

1996-2003: Co-founder, co-chair of the DFG Graduate program “Kunstwissenschaft – Bauforschung – Denkmalpflege“, Universities of Bamberg and Berlin

2003: Co-founder, co-chair of the DFG Graduate program “Generationenbewusstsein und Generationenkonflikte in Antike und Mittelalter” (until change to Heidelberg).

2005-2009: Graduate program of the University of Heidelberg “Das Konzert der Medien in der Vormoderne. Gruppenbildung und Performanz”

2005-2013: Vice-coordinator, DFG Collaborative Research Program (SFB) 619 “The Dynamics of Rituals”

2005-2011: Coordinator DFG Priority Program “Integration and disintegration in European medieval cultures”

2006-2014: Member of the Academic Advisory Council, University of Heidelberg

2007-2012: Coordinator of the research program „Transcultural Studies“, Excellence initiative, University of Heidelberg

Since 2007: Principal investigator, Cluster of Excellence “Asia and Europe in a Global Context. The Dynamics of Transculturality “, University of Heidelberg. Coordinator (together with Klaus Oschema) of the project “World Orders in Transcultural Perspective. Pre-Modern Concepts of Continents and Empire“ (2013-2016)

2009-2018: Member of the University Council, University of Heidelberg

2010-2024: Coordinator Academy Research Program “Cloisters in the Central Middle Ages. Innovation Laboratories of European Life and Order” (Heidelberg Academy of Sciences).

2011-2019: DFG Collaborative Research Program (SFB) 933 “Material Text Cultures. Materiality and Presence of Writing in Non-Typographical Societies”.

Past/previous supervisions of doctoral students, postdocs:

Supervision of 23 completed PhD theses, 4 habilitation theses.

Current supervision: 5 PhD theses, 4 habilitation theses

Publications:

<http://www.uni->

heidelberg.de/fakultaeten/philosophie/zegk/histsem/mitglieder/ls_schneidmueller_veroeffentlichungen.html