

Terrorism and Transnationality:
Historical Perspectives on Political Violence, Protest and Communication across Borders

17 June 2021
Online Workshop

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 13:00-13:20 | Welcome and Introduction |
| 13:20-14:30 | Propaganda by the Deed in the Transnational Public Sphere

Constance Bantman (Surrey): The Print Politics of Propaganda by the Deed

Fabian Lemmes (Bochum): Public Debates on Terrorism: The Anarchist Attacks in Late 19th Century Europe |
| 14:30-14:50 | Coffee Break |
| 14:50-16:00 | Newspapers, Digitization, and its Uses in Research on Transnational Terrorism

Mats Fridlund (Gothenburg): Trawling for Terrorists in the Digital Gulf of Bothnia: The Flawed Finnish Emergence of 'Separatist Terrorism' in the early 20th Century

Moritz Florin (Erlangen): Terrorist Acts of Violence as Transnational Media Events. Examples from Eastern and Western Europe |
| 16:00-16:40 | Break |
| 16:40-17:50 | Networks, Protest and Glocal Events in the History of Russian Terrorism

Lara Green (Durham): Mapping the Local, National, and Transnational Networks of Russian Emigre Terrorist Propagandists in London, 1884-1914

Felicitas Fischer von Weikersthal (Heidelberg): Russian Terrorism and Public Demonstrations of Transnational Protest. The Funeral of Grigorii Gershuni as a Glocal Event |
| 17:50-18:10 | Coffee Break |

18:10-19:20

Migration, Transnationality and State Surveillance in the trans-Atlantic

Niall Whelehan (Glasgow): Migration, Transnationality and Irish Nationalist Violence in the late-1800s.

Dimitry Nechiporuk (Tyumen): “The Settlement has been a Meeting Place for Anarchists”: The Polarization of the American Friends of Russian Freedom after 1917 and the Surveillance of Progressive Political activities by the U.S. Department of Justice, 1919-1922

19:20

Short Break

Final Discussion + Outlook