A Journey into Chinese Thought and Modern Civilization:
Beijing Normal University Philosophy Summer School
July 1–15, 2019

PROGRAM BROCHURE

Beijing Normal University
Philosophy Summer School

Overview

With more than 3000 years of advanced civilization, China has a rich tradition of philosophical thinking and moral reasoning. To enable young students and scholars all around the world to get in touch with Chinese culture, to understand China's contemporary situation, and to develop an interest in Chinese philosophy, the School of Philosophy of Beijing Normal University (BNU) will hold Confucius China Studies Program • BNU Philosophy Summer School from July 1 to July 15, 2019. The general theme for the summer school will be "Chinese Thought and Modern Civilization".

Designed for global university students and young faculty members who are curious about traditional Chinese culture, Confucius China Studies Program • BNU Philosophy Summer School has run for four successful sessions in 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018. Our invited speakers are world-renowned scholars who offer unique insights into traditional Chinese philosophy and thought-provoking discussions on contemporary China. The Philosophy Summer School also presents a unique opportunity to meet young people from around the world who share a passion to explore the treasures of Chinese civilization. Our Philosophy Summer School enriches philosophical understanding while offering precious memories for both the students and the teachers.
