Cultural and Activity Newsletter October 2021

Dear visiting scholars,

We have compiled different events and activities for the next weeks.

We hope you enjoy them and we are happy to know any other suggestions from you, as well as we are looking forward to hear any possible feedback, if you managed to visit or undertake one of these offers:

Französische Woche: Every year since 2006, the festival has enriched the cultural life of Heidelberg and Mannheim. With almost 80 events celebrating French and German culture, the French Week is a vivid example of Franco-German friendship. In 2021, it takes place from October 15 to 24. For more information click on the following link.

Heidelberger Weindorf: The first Heidelberg Wine Village will take place from October 8 to 17, 2021, on Karlsplatz and Heidelberg Castle, daily from 11 am to 9 pm. The best wines from Heidelberg and the region can be enjoyed here, complemented by a varied range of regional cuisine.

Enjoy Jazz: Since its premiere in 1999, this international jazz festival organized by the Rhine-Neckar Metropolitan Region has developed into one of the leading events of its kind in Germany. Jazz fans can look forward to concerts, workshops, films and much more. The 23. Enjoy Jazz Festival will take place from October 2 to November 13, 2021.
