2 Purposes of processing your personal data (Art. 4 (2) GDPR)

From the first day of your service, we are responsible for determining and paying your remuneration and Beihilfe (continued salary payments and assistance in case of illness) or Heilfürsorge (payments for necessary medical treatments). In order to do so, we require your personal data. We collect such data through forms which you receive either from us or from your personnel department. Alternatively, you can download the forms at <https://lbv.landbw.de> (German forms only). Data that we do not necessarily need to collect in order to fulfill our tasks but that facilitate our work significantly, for example your phone number, are marked "(optional)" in the forms. We only collect personal data from third parties if these parties are required or authorized to provide their data.

We only process your data to fulfill the tasks assigned to us by legislation and/or according to the regulations established by the state government and the Ministry of Finance regarding the areas of responsibility of the Landesamt für Besoldung und Versorgung Baden-Württemberg (LBVZuVO). We do not disclose or otherwise transmit your personal data unless we are obliged to do so by law.

3 Legal basis for the collection of data

- General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), in particular Articles 6 and 9
- data protection act of the Land of Baden-Württemberg (Landesdatenschutzgesetz, LDSG), in particular sections 4, 5 and 15
- civil service act of the Land of Baden-Württemberg (Landesbeamtengesetz, LBG) in particular sections 78, 79 and 83 to 88
- act on the remuneration of civil servants of the Land Baden-Württemberg (Landesbesoldungsgesetz, LBesGBW) and the accompanying regulations
- act on Beihilfe (Beihilfeverordnung, BVO), in particular sections 1 and 18
- act on Heilverfahren (Heilverfahrensverordnung BW, LHeilfVOBW), in particular sections 3 and 14
- act on the foundation of the LBV (LBV-Gesetz, LBVG), in particular section 2
- act on the areas of responsibility of the LBV (LBVZuVO)

This translation is provided by the University of Mannheim and serves information purposes only. English forms are not legally binding and will not be accepted by the LBV. Please always fill in the German forms. In the event of any conflict between the English and German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation, the German text, its structure, meaning or interpretation prevail.

- tax regulations, in particular the income tax act (Einkommensteuergesetz, EStG) and the Fiscal Code of Germany (Abgabenverordnung, AO)
- books of the German Social Code, in particular section 202 of Book V of the Social Code (Sozialgesetzbuch – Fünftes Buch, SGB V) in conjunction with section 67a subsection 1 and 2 SGB X
- regulations on court proceedings, in particular the German Code of Civil Procedure (Zivilprozessordnung, ZPO)
- as family benefits office according to section 72 EStG, in particular sections 62 ff. and 68 EStG
- minister act (Ministergesetz) and act on the legal status of parliamentary state secretaries (ParlStG)
- regulations by the Ministry of Finance regarding the transfer of cash transactions to the Landesamt für Besoldung und Versorgung Baden-Württemberg (LBVKGeschÜV BW1)

4 Processing and storage of personal data

We can only determine and pay out your remuneration by using electronic data processing. Any incoming mail is recorded electronically. We use a document management system (DMS) and calculation programs to record your mail and to store your data. We employ technical and organizational security measures in order to protect your personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss or alteration and unauthorized disclosure or access.

We process the following types of personal data:

- personal data (e.g., last name, first name, title, date of birth, place of birth, name at birth, gender, nationality, address, professional career)
- in case of a different addressee: last name, first name, title, address
- bank details
- tax criteria (e.g., tax bracket, religion, tax exemptions)
- marital status and, if required, personal data of (former) spouse, the other parent (of your child/ren), and your child/ren
- data regarding the application for and grant of child benefit
- powers of attorney
- remuneration criteria (e.g., pay grade, beginning of professional experience, periods of service)
- details regarding capital-forming benefits, if relevant
- income from other sources, income replacement benefits or civil service pension, if relevant
- employer
- scope and duration of employment
- previous employer, if relevant
- basic data regarding Beihilfe (e.g., insurance plans)
- medical data relevant for Beihilfe payments (e.g., data on long-term care insurance (classification and duration), implants (number and location), visual aids (diopter, type, date of last frame)). Diagnostic data are not stored.
- medical data for the determination of accident compensation due to an accident in service, if relevant

5 Disclosure/transfer of data

Any personal data obtained during one of our processes will only be transferred to third parties or authorities (e.g., other agencies in charge of granting payments or determining Beihilfe) if you have given us the authorization to do so or if it is permitted by law. We will disclose some of your data to the entities below, who need the information to fulfill their tasks.

This includes, in particular,

- tax administration
- banks
- entities responsible for statutory health insurance, if relevant
- Deutsche Rentenversicherung (German compulsory pension scheme), if relevant

- family benefits office, if relevant
- occupational pension fund, if relevant
- agencies to which capital-forming payments are made, if relevant
- your spouse's employer or pension fund, if relevant
- Landtag and the Ministries of the Land, if relevant
- Rechnungshof Baden-Württemberg (regional audit institution), if relevant
- other offices paying other forms of remuneration, if relevant
- courts, if relevant
- public health officers or other evaluators in the scope of accident insurance, if relevant

The information required to pay your remuneration will be disclosed to your bank.

Data regarding Beihilfe or Beihilfe documents will only be disclosed to entities outside the administration (e.g., health authorities, evaluators) in exceptional cases and only with your consent.

Your data are only transferred to third countries (countries outside the EU/the EEA) in exceptional cases, for instance if you are subject to social security legislation in a third country due to personal circumstances. In these cases, personal data are transferred to the relevant social security provider in the third country to the extent necessary (Article 45 ff. GDPR).

6 Storage period

Any personal data we process during one of the procedures related to remuneration are only stored for as long as we need them in order to fulfill our tasks. Basis for this are the legal provisions regarding personal files (section 86 LBG in conjunction with section 15 LDSG) and the regulations of tax law (e.g., as set out in the Fiscal Code of Germany).

7 Your rights (right of access, right to object, etc.)

In order to ensure transparency and accuracy and to make sure that your interests are protected, the GDPR includes a number of rights you can exercise. For example, you can have data corrected or lodge a complaint. We have provided a short overview of these rights below. For more details, please see Articles 15 to 18, 21 and 77 GDPR.

Right of access (Article 15 GDPR)

You have the right to obtain access to any personal data that we process. When requesting access, you should specify the information you wish to receive in order to facilitate the compilation of the relevant data.

Right to rectification (Article 16 GDPR)

Should any data concerning you be inaccurate, you can demand to have them rectified immediately. You can also demand to have any incomplete data completed.

Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') (Article 17 GDPR)

Under certain circumstances you can demand to have personal data deleted immediately. The obligation of the entity processing your data to delete the data immediately depends on whether the data in question are still needed by the relevant authority responsible for payments in order to fulfill their tasks as required by law.

Right to restriction of processing (Article 18 GDPR)

Under certain circumstances you have the right to demand that the processing of your personal data be restricted.

Right to object (Article 21 GDPR)

On grounds relating to your particular situation, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data at any time. However, the controller does not have to comply if they demonstrate legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms or if the processing serves the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

Right to lodge a complaint (Article 77 GDPR)

If you are of the opinion that the processing of your personal data is not in compliance with the GDPR, you can lodge a complaint with the competent data protection supervisory authority. The competent supervisory authority is the commissioner for data protection and freedom of information of Baden-Württemberg (Landesbeauftragte/r für den Datenschutz und die Informationsfreiheit Baden-Württemberg).
